NEW QUESTION: 1

- (1) On my nineteenth birthday, I began my trip to Mali, West Africa.
- (2) Some 24 hours later I arrived in Bamako, the capital of Mali.
- (3) The sun had set and the night was starless.
- (4) One of the officials from the literacy program I was working was there to meet me.
- (5) After the melee in the baggage claim, we proceeded to his car.
- (6) Actually, it was a truck.
- (7) I was soon to learn that most people in Mali that had automobiles actually had trucks or SUVs.
- (8) Apparently, there not just a convenience but a necessity when you live on the edge of the Sahara.
- (9) I threw my bags into the bed of the truck, and hopped in to the back of the cab.
- (10) Riding to my welcome dinner, I stared out the windows of the truck and took in the city.
- (11) It was truly a foreign land to me, and I knew that I was an alien there.
- (12) "What am I doing here?" I thought.
- (13) It is hard to believe but seven months later I returned to the same airport along the same road that I had traveled on that first night in Bamako, and my perspective on the things that I saw had completely changed.
- (14) The landscape that had once seemed so desolate and lifeless now was the homeland of people that I had come to love.
- (15) When I looked back at the capital, Bamako, fast receding on the horizon, I did not see a city foreboding and wild in its foreignness.
- (16) I saw the city which held so many dear friends.
- (17) I saw teadrinking sessions going late into the night.
- (18) I saw the hospitality and open-heartedness of the people of Mali.
- (19) The second time, everything looked completely different, and I knew that it was I who had changed and not it.

Which of the following is the best way to revise sentence 7 (reproduced below)? I was soon to learn that most people in Mali that had automobiles actually had trucks or SUVs.

- A. Change "I was soon to learn" to "I was soon learning"
- B. Add an apostrophe to make "SUVs" read "SUV's"
- C. Add commas after "Mali" and "automobiles"
- D. Change "that had automobiles" to "who had automobiles"
- E. Replace "or" with "and"

Answer: D

Explanation:

That had automobiles should not be separated by commas because it is an integral part of the category being described, not an added description. But it isn't correct in written English to write people that. It has to be people who (or people whom if what follows positions the people as the object of a verb). The answer is (B).
